

Dr. Tanda Joy Canion

Biographical Vitae

Dr. Tanda Joy Canion is the wife and help meet to the Honorable Bishop Michael Canion since 1986. Together they serve as pastors of the Assembly of Truth Family Worship Center in Atlanta, Georgia. She is the mother of two children, India and Christian. She is the grandmother of twins, Lyric and Nikai.

In addition to the other important facets of her life, she is a Life Insurance Agent, a Notary Public, and a Real Estate Agent in the state of Georgia. She is a certified interior designer from Clayton State University and a former Boutique Owner. Moreover, Dr. Canion has studied at the following universities and was an honor student: Clark Atlanta University, Georgia State University, and Beulah Heights University. She is an honorary doctorate recipient. She is the Founder of Tanda Canion Ministries, Inc., Tanda Canion Foundation, Inc., and Tanda Canion Faith and Empowerment Convention.

She is multi-talented and enjoys crafts, floral/fashion design, drapery and gardening.

Dr. Canion served many years in the Higher Ground Always Abounding Assemblies under the leadership of Bishop Sherman S. Watkins and Bishop T.D. Jakes. Under this organization she served faithfully as if it were her own as the National President of Women. Under her leadership the department developed many programs and experienced rapid growth.

Dr. Canion is anointed and well-seasoned in the Word of God and the Gifts of the Spirit since the age of 18 years old. She is a Spiritual Mother and Mentor to many. She is a sought after Bible Teacher, Convention/Conference Speaker and Seminar Speaker.

She has been a guest on TBN, The Word Network, local networks such as WATC, AIB, People TV and more. Passionately, Dr. Canion promotes excellence on all levels throughout the Body of Christ. Above all, she has embraced her mission to preach the gospel throughout the nation and the world.